

Public Private Partnership Model:

Public Private Partnership is the distinguishing characteristic of NCHD which combines the efforts of both

Lead Agency for Literacy in Pakistan

NCHD was awarded with “The International Reading Association Literacy Prize 2006” by UNESCO in recognition of its

Provision of easy access to education:

We have established feeder schools in the most remote areas of Pakistan where no educational infrastructure

National presence

We are present in 134 districts of Pakistan including FATA, Gilgit Baltistan, and Azad Jammu Kashmir p

Vision to empower the government leading to national development:

Our vision is to help government of Pakistan achieve the Millennium Development Goals in minimum po

High level of check and balance system

Through the establishment of NCHD and PHDF, the Government of Pakistan has set up a two-pronged